

National Statement, delivered by Mr. Danyal Hasnain, Second Secretary, during the 4th
UPR Review of Central African Republic
(45th Session of UPR)
26 January 2024

Mr. Vice President,

We warmly welcome the delegation of Central African Republic and thank it for the presentation of its 4th UPR report.

We appreciate Central African Republic for its continued engagement with the UN human rights machinery. We also welcome various measures taken by the Government to promote and protect the rights of its citizens, including several institutional and policy steps in the field of trafficking in persons, protection of children and promoting good governance.

We have the following recommendations:

- Take further measures to strengthen the National Action Plan to Combat Trafficking in Persons;
- Strengthened measures to protect the rights of children and women; and
- Continued measures to promote good governance and strengthen human rights training for all government officials.

We wish Central African Republic a successful review.

I thank you!
